

7.2.1

1. Title of the Practice: Management Of online teaching learning system.

Objective:

To ensure a smooth transition while imparting effective education during the long and recurring pandemic, the college adopted various methods, techniques and measures to equip the faculty for the required changes.

The context:

The problematic pandemic returned and continued its horror . The infrastructure again was geared for online teaching on both on the part of teachers and students.

The practice:

The online meeting through applications like Google Meet and Zoom were used by teachers to engage students in daily classes as per the regular time table of the college. Attendance was compulsory and teacher marked attendance of students in his/ her classes.

Evidence of success:

The attendance of students in the online classes was above 95%in general. It was a practice with teachers to check the students' attendance at random during a class.

2. Title of the Practice: Cleanliness campaigns

Objective:- Our college students are always keen on volunteering for participating in maintaining the cleanliness in the premises as well as nearby rural areas. It is a holistic purpose with the college. Swachhta Club and N.S.S encourage each student and faculty member to be aware of the importance of sanitation and the need to actively join in and be a part of cleanliness drives.

The context: The return of this deadly COVID gave the family of B.L.M Girls College a cause to vigorously engage in keeping each part of the premises tidy and infection free. Cleanliness is an everyday motto of the college, but the recurrence of COVID motivated all to make it a prime objective this session.

The Practice: Weekly and one day camps, rallies and workshops by mainly N.S.S unit and swachhta club are held frequently. Students clean windows, panes, doors, fans, furniture, lawns, flower beds, water tanks, grounds, classrooms, offices in own campus as well as schools, gurudwaras of nearby villages.

Evidence of success: A picture speaks far more than words, the pictures uploaded convey not only evidence but the success of the cleanliness drives during the whole session.
