6.2.2 The functioning of the institutional bodies is effective and efficient as visible from policies, administrative setup, appointment and service rules, procedures, etc.

The institute is administered effectively through strong leadership, and mission driven teamwork. The primary objectives of the administration are continuous improvement, and provide quality well-rounded education at UG and PG levels. The organizational structure of the institution is making the college work smoothly and all the stake holder are striving hard towards achieving the respective goals. In this organizational structure, Managing Committee is the pivot of this institution.

RULES, POLICIES, RECRUITMENT PROCEDURES, PROMOTIONAL POLICIES

The recruitment process to appoint faculty and staff members is done in a transparent mode. Promotions are given to staff members who excel in academics and research as per the rule of UGC and DPI Punjab Govt. The Institution attracts a good number of applications for the recruitment. However, sustained efforts are made to continue to hold quality faculty members at all levels. The recruitment procedure is as follows:

1. Submission of staff requirements by HODs to the Principal.
2. Advertising the staff requirements in leading newspapers.
3. Constitution of the selection committee.
4. Short listing of applications received.
5. Calling eligible candidates for interview.
6. Interviews of candidates to assess their potential and skills
7. Selection based on the performance of candidates.
8. Issuing of appointment orders.
9. Reporting to duty on the mentioned date.

- (f) A nominee of the D.P.I.
 (g) A subject expert to be nominated by the D.P.I.

The quorum for the meeting would be 5 of which atleast one representative of the University and one representative of the D.P.I. must be present.

(B) The appointment of College Principal will be made by Selection Committee consisting of the following members:-

1. Chairperson of the Governing Board as Chairperson.
2. One member of the Governing Board to be nominated by the Chairperson.
3. Two Vice-Chancellor's nominees, out of whom one should be an expert.
4. D.P.I./Nominee
5. One expert out of a list of persons (to be provided by the D.P.I.) consisting of Principal or Professor who are known educationists to be appointed by the Chairman of the Governing Body.

At least four members, including two experts, should constitute the quorum.

The process of selection shall involve the following:-

1. Assessment of aptitude for teaching and research.
2. Ability to communicate clearly and effectively.
3. Ability to analyse and discuss.
4. Optional: Ability to communicate may be assessed by requiring the candidate to participate in a group discussion or by exposure to a class room situation/lecture, wherever it is possible.

1.3 Recruitment to the posts of Lecturers in the colleges shall be made out of the candidates who possess qualifications prescribed by the University Grants Commission/State Govt. as adopted by the University from time to time.

2. Every employee in an Arts and Science College shall be paid atleast the minimum pay scale as laid down by the University.

3.1 The employee will ordinarily be appointed on one year's probation after which he will normally be confirmed if his work is found satisfactory. It would be obligatory on the part of a Managing

Minakshi

Body to notify to the teacher in writing before the expiry of one year's probationary period, whether he had been confirmed or his period of probation had been extended and in the absence of such a notice the teacher would be deemed to have been confirmed.

The probationary period, in no case, will be extended beyond two years from the date of appointment.

3.2 The period for which a lecturer has worked against a leave vacancy on-ad-hoc basis due to an appointment made by the Principal or on a temporary basis against a leave vacancy due to an appointment made by the properly constituted Selection Committee will not count towards the probationary period, if such a person is appointed on a regular basis against a substantive post by the duly constituted Selection Committee unless the Selection Committee makes a specific recommendation to that effect in their proceedings.

4. No college teacher shall be required to teach for more periods than laid down by the *University, apart from such co-curricular activities as may be assigned to him by the Principal.

The Principal of a College located in a rural area, may, however, allot to a teacher additional teaching work not exceeding six periods per week over and above the maximum number of periods prescribed by the University for the whole of the academic session or a part thereof on payment of proportionate additional salary, provided that no such additional salary will be admissible to a teacher who is assigned additional teaching periods, for a period of two weeks or less.

5. The Principal and the teachers of a College shall be paid their salary regularly, but in no case later than the tenth of the month following that for which the salary is due.

6.1 Annual increments shall be drawn as a matter of course and shall not be withheld without assigning specific reasons in writing and the teacher shall have the right of appeal to the Vice-Chancellor.

6.2 The annual increment shall be allowed with effect from the first day of the month in which it falls due, instead of the actual date.

7.1 An increment shall be drawn as a matter of course if it is withheld. But where an efficiency certificate is withheld...

scale the increment next above the efficiency bar shall not be given to an employee working in Non-govt. affiliated colleges without the specific sanction of authority empowered to withhold increment. This authority should vest with the Governing Body of the College, which is the appointing authority.

7.2 Withholding of increments or promotion including stoppage of efficiency bar is a penalty whether the stoppage at efficiency bar be on ground of unfitness or otherwise. Therefore, an order stopping an employee at an efficiency bar will be appealable to Vice-Chancellor.

7.3 ACRs should be written in the proper form prescribed by the Department by the Principal of every lecturer regularly and proper record should be maintained by the Principal.

7.4 All adverse remarks written in the ACRs should be communicated to the lecturers concerned, so that he/she may be able to file an appeal and reports regarding his/her work and conduct should be placed before the committee constituted by the managing committee for this purpose. He/She should also be given an opportunity to improve his/her work and conduct.

7.5 The following members will constitute committee for consideration of cases for crossing the efficiency bar of the lecturers:

- (1) President, Secretary, nominee of the Managing Committee of the College.
- (2) Principal of the College.

7.6 All cases involving crossing of an efficiency bar will be initiated three months before the date on which an employee has to cross the efficiency bar and all such cases shall be decided by the Governing Body of the institution before the said date.

7.7 The committee shall consider the last three A.C.Rs. of the lecturers alongwith the special report from the Principal.

7.8 If the committee desires over all assessment of the lecturer concerned from the date of his/her joining service it may also be considered in case the last three ACRs are not satisfactory.

7.9 In the orders of stoppage at an efficiency bar, it will specifically be stated whether the order will have cumulative or non-cumulative basis.

7.9.1 Normally the employees may be allowed to cross the efficiency bar, where there is good reason to show that he is fit to cross it i.e. he has acquired the requisite standard of efficiency.

7.9.2. As the efficiency of his service and the standard of education depends to a great extent on the quality of officials/teaching staff at the top, it is essential that each case is dealt with care and the crossing of efficiency bar is not regarded as mere matter of form.

7.9.3. Cases of stoppage of efficiency bar on ground of unfitness should be reviewed at the expiry of one year from the date of orders.

8. An employee whether permanent or on probation or appointed temporarily shall be entitled to summer vacation salary as under:

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| (i) Those who complete nine months' service | ...full salary |
| (ii) Those who complete service for three months or more but less than nine. | ...proportionate salary on the basis of full salary for nine months. |

Provided that no employee who has served for less than three months will be entitled to any summer vacation salary.

Provided further that if an employee leaves service of his own accord, he shall not be entitled to summer vacation salary or any portion thereof.

Provided further that an employee who retires from service on attaining the age of 60 years or on the expiry of the period of any extension granted to him thereafter or on completing the period of his re-appointment for a specified period on contract basis beyond the age of 60 years will not be entitled to summer vacation salary or any portion thereof.

9.1 The Principal, being the Head of the Institution will exercise general control over the teaching departments and will head the departments for their smooth and proper functioning.

The Principal of the Non-Government colleges affiliated to this University shall be paid special allowance per month as prescribed by the University from time to time.

9.2 There shall be a Head of the Department for each subject provided the number of teachers in the department is not less than five. Head of the Department shall be appointed by the Principal on basis of seniority in the same college, provided he/she is unconditionally approved by the University for teaching Post-graduate/Degree classes as the case may be.

9.3 If an eventuality arises, the Principal may appoint the next senior person in the Department as Head of the Department, in the interest of the college work.

10.1 (a) The service record of Principal/Teacher and the Annual confidential report of his work and conduct shall be maintained regularly by the Managing Committee/Principal. The person concerned shall be informed in writing in case there is an adverse report.

(b) Every employee shall have the right to inspect his service book during the first quarter of the financial year and his signatures will be obtained in confirmation of his having inspected the service book.

A certified copy of the service book shall be supplied to the employee if asked for by him on payment of copying fee as may be prescribed.

10.2 Every affiliated Non-Government College shall prepare a seniority list on the basis of persons in position as on 1-11-1966 and supply the same to the University. Such lists shall be brought up to date every year as on April 1.

10.3.1 A person in a senior scale shall always be senior to the persons in the lower scale.

Under the scheme of revision of pay scales w.e.f. 1.1.86, the relaxation in service of 8/16 years for placement in senior/selection scale by one year/three years in respect of those possessing M.Phil/Ph.D. Research Degrees as the case may be (it being only an incentive for the higher qualifications) will not affect the inter-se-seniority of Lecturers.

10.3.2 The seniority of a person in a grade will be determined as under :

- (i) (a) Length of service in the scale (from date of joining) subject to confirmation from the date of appointment.
- (b) If the probationary period is not completed and a person is not confirmed from the date of appointment, then seniority will be determined with effect from the date of confirmation.

M. Minakshin

- (c) If the date of joining and confirmation is the same, a person given the higher start will be considered as senior.
- (ii) If the starting salary is also the same, then the person old in age shall be senior.
- (iii) In case of appointment made by direct recruitment, a person placed at No. 1 in order of merit shall be senior to a person placed at No. 2 and so on.
- (iv) The candidates who have been ranked at No. 1 by the Selection Committee in various subjects shall be grouped together and the elder member shall be senior to others. Similarly, candidates ranking at No. 2, 3 etc., shall be taken from the different subjects and grouped together and the elder number shall be senior to a younger number. In case, two or more candidates have the same date of approval in the same group, the candidate who joins first, shall be senior to others.

10.3.3 A Managing Committee having more than one college shall have one consolidated list of seniority.

10.3.4 For the purpose of determination of seniority, a college having Arts, Science and Commerce faculties shall be treated as one Unit, and a College having a Professional Faculty shall be considered as a separate Unit.

11.1 The age of superannuation of Principal/Teacher in an affiliated college shall be 60 years.

Provided that the Principal/Teacher will be entitled to seek voluntary retirement in accordance with the Punjab Govt. rules prevalent from time to time.

11.2 The date of retirement of an employee shall be the afternoon of the last day of the month in which the actual date of his retirement falls.

11.3 A person who, after having served in other affiliated colleges/University in the Punjab State/Chandigarh joined another affiliated College(s) shall be allowed the benefit of continuous service while calculating gratuity at the time of retirement. The gratuity shall be payable as per rules in force at the time of retirement.

11.4 The person above 60 years of age who is appointed as Principal/Teacher in an affiliated college shall be eligible for superannuation on retirement.

12. The governing body of a Non-Government College shall include on its management, in addition to the Principal, who shall be an Ex-officio member, two representatives of teachers elected by teachers of not less than five years standing, provided that (i) the two representatives so elected shall be of not less than ten years standing and (ii) if two teachers of ten years standing are not available on the staff of the college, one representative shall be elected of not less than five years standing. Provided further that if no teacher even of five years standing is available in a College, a teacher who happens to be the senior most on the staff, shall be invited by the Governing Body to serve on it. The term of office of such representative shall be the same as for the remaining members of the Governing Body, provided that in no case it shall exceed three years.

The standing of a teacher for the above purpose should be with respect to the college which he is to represent on the managing committee.

Provided further that the teaching experience gained by a teacher while working in different colleges admitted to the privileges of the Universities in Punjab and Chandigarh under the same management shall be counted towards the total teaching experience for the purpose.

The election will be through secret ballot by simple majority vote and an eligible teacher will have as many votes as the number of vacancies to be filled up.

Provided further that a casual vacancy shall be filled by election within three months of the vacancy occurring and the member so elected shall continue for the rest of the term of the outgoing member. Election shall be conducted by the Principal.

13.1 Subject to what is contained in Ordinances 15, 16 and 17 infra, the Governing Body of a Non-Government College shall be entitled to determine the engagement of a permanent employee after giving him three months' notice in writing or on payment of three months salary in lieu of notice, for a good cause. Provided that in case of moral turpitude or misconduct, the Governing Body shall have the right to suspend the employee with immediate effect.

The period of suspension shall not exceed six months, within which the case must be decided. During the period of suspension, the employee shall be paid subsistence allowance in accordance with the Punjab Govt. Rules prevalent from time to time. It shall only be employee is removed from service, notice for such removal shall not be required nor will any salary be paid in lieu thereof.

13.2 A copy of the order of suspension together with a copy of the charge-sheet shall be sent within a week to the Registrar/Dean, College Development Council, who may direct that the teacher shall not be placed under suspension.

13.3 If a Principal/Teacher including the one appointed temporarily or on probation is dismissed or removed from service, the College shall send an intimation to the University, giving reasons etc. within two weeks.

14.* A permanent employee may, at any time, terminate his services by giving the Governing Body three months' notice in writing or three months' salary in lieu thereof. However, if he/she is on extra-ordinary leave without pay, he/she must inform the management at least three months prior to the expiry of leave that he/she would not be rejoining the college, and in case he/she fails to give this information, he/she shall be liable to pay three months' salary to the college. The aforesaid information given three months prior to the expiry of leave will be treated as valid resignation notice.

15.* During the period of probation and when an employee is holding a temporary appointment, the notice period required on either side shall be one month.

16. The dismissal or removal or retrenchment from service or reduction in rank of an employee shall be governed by the provisions of the Punjab Affiliated Colleges (Security of Service of Teachers) Act, 1974.

17. All colleges shall follow the general pattern of the Standard Provident Fund Rules as adopted by the Punjab Education Department (Appendix II), but the contribution of an employee of a non-Government affiliated college as well as the management of the college shall not be less than 10% of his pay and shall commence w.e.f. the date of confirmation of the employee.

Note : Provided that where a higher rate of Provident Fund already prevails, it will not be reduced without the consent of the University.

* The period of summer vacation shall be as provided in the Punjab Govt. Rules. In lieu of notice shall not be in addition to the summer vacation salary. The notice shall be submitted to the summer vacation committee under the Punjab Govt. Rules. The notice period shall be as per the Rules.

and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of the subscriber.

(b) In the case of a female subscriber, the husband and children of the subscriber and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of the subscriber.

2. These ordinances shall apply to all employees holding non-pensionable posts in Non-Government affiliated colleges. The Provident Fund will be deducted from the date of confirmation of the employee.

3. The control of the fund shall vest in the Registrar, Guru Nanak Dev University. The Registrar may, however, delegate his power under this ordinance to such officers as he may appoint in this behalf.

Every subscriber must on joining the fund sign a certificate in token of acceptance of the ordinances in form "C" appended to these ordinances.

4. The Governing Body shall make a contribution to the deposit account of each depositor, equal to the amount of deduction made from his pay under the preceding ordinance. Such contribution shall be credited to the fund, month by month, in favour of such employee together with the amount deducted from his/her pay. The contribution will be charged in the college accounts to the sub-head "Provident Fund".

5.(1) The sum credited to the depositors monthly under ordinances 4 and 5 in the Provident Fund Ledger maintained by the College Governing Body, shall be paid duly into the Post Office Savings Bank or into a Co-operative Bank approved by the Registrar of Co-operative Societies or into a class 'A' Scheduled Bank. Such payment should, whenever possible, be made into the bank between the 1st and 4th of each month in order that interest may accrue. The bank account for each individual contributors shall be kept separately in the name of the President/Secretary of the college on behalf of the contributor and separate pass book should be issued in each case.

(2) Monies cannot be withdrawn from such bank account as provided in ordinances 4, 5 and 6.

ORDINANCES

(ii) Accounts of investments made under this ordinance must be maintained in form 'D' annexed hereto.

Note : Notwithstanding Ordinance 5(a) above, total deposit or part thereof may with the consent of the contributors and the Registrar or such Officers appointed by him in this behalf, be withdrawn and invested in Government securities or in fixed Deposit Receipts drawn on a nationalised Bank or an 'A' class Scheduled Bank or a Co-operative Bank approved by the Registrar of Co-operative Societies.

6. Every depositor shall be required to nominate in Form E appended the person or persons he desires to be beneficiary or beneficiaries entitled upon his death to the balance to his credit in the fund provided that where such depositor has wife or children, such wife or children shall be nominated as beneficiaries in preference to any other person or persons.

The Governing Body will not be bound by or recognise any assignment or encumbrance executed or attempted to be created which affects the disposal of the accumulations of a depositor who dies before retirement.

7. The deposits and contributions, with full interest thereon, at the credit of any employee, or such part of them as he may be entitled to may, with the sanction of the Registrar or such officer appointed by him in this behalf be withdrawn by the Committee from the Post Office Savings Bank or approved Co-operative Bank or Government Securities in the following cases :

(i) On the demise of the depositor, when the amount shall be paid to the beneficiaries nominated by him or, if no nominated beneficiary survives him, to his legal heir or heirs.

(ii) On his retirement or physical unfitness for further service, when the amount shall be paid to the depositor himself. (An employee granted leave preparatory to retirement may be permitted to withdraw the sum to which he is entitled at any time during leave).

(iii) On his resignation when (a) Form D is deposited and (b) he has received 101 he shall receive :

(1) After less than three years' service his own deposits together with 5 percent of the deposits of his fund (not to be paid to the credit of his account).

ORDINANCES

- Note: (1) The term "service" or "completed service" occurring in this Ordinance means the length of such service from the date of joining the Provident Fund.
- (2) This balance will consist of the Committee's contribution (which includes any grants from Government for this purpose), together with interest on such contribution.
- (3) "His own deposits" means the money deposited by the employee and the full interest earned on it.
- (b) After three years' completed service his own deposits together with 30 per cent of the balance as on pre page.
- (c) After four years' completed service his own deposits together with 40 percent of the balance as on pre page.
- (d) After five years' completed service his own deposits together with 50 percent of the balance as on pre page; and thereafter by annual increments of 10 per cent for each additional year of completed service up to 100 per cent or the full balance in the fund to the credit of his account.

- (iv) If an employee's services are dispensed with through no fault of his own, e.g., owing to reduction of establishment he shall be paid the full balance of his credit without any reduction.
- (v) To make temporary advances as provided in Ordinance 16.

8. In case an employee resigns with a view to take up an appointment in the University college or is transferred to another college, which has a Provident Fund, the balance at the credit of his Provident Fund Account, notwithstanding anything contained in Ordinance 7, may be allowed to be transferred to the University/Institution he joins, if he so desires.

9. While determining the quantum of the management's contribution payable to an employee whose Provident Fund money has been previously transferred from another college, his total service in various affiliated colleges with effect from the date of his joining the Provident Fund will be taken into account.

10. If an employee is transferred to another college in continuation of a written agreement, the Governing Body may with the consent of the Registrar or such Officer appointed by him in this behalf pay to him only his own deposits together with 5 per cent of the balance at his credit in the fund and may withhold from him the whole or part of any further sum to which he would ordinarily be entitled under Ordinance 8. The depositor's own deposits cannot be forfeited.

11. A separate account with the bank concerned shall be opened in the name of the Governing Body for depositing any sum of money withheld from an employee under the preceding Ordinances. The account shall be called the "Employees Provident Fund Account". Money at the credit of his account may, with the approval of the Registrar or such Officer appointed by him in this behalf, be utilised for compassionate allowances and gratuities to destitute employees of the college and their widows and dependents.

12. A separate account in Form A appended, shall be kept and written up in the office of the College Governing Body for every depositor, and a copy of this account, which shall show every payment credited, with the interest thereon, shall be furnished to every depositor every year as soon as possible after the close of the financial year to which the account relates.

13. Amounts credited or debited to the Provident Fund shall, on the same day, be posted into the Provident Fund Ledger, in form B appended, in full detail. The figures for column 8 of the Ledger must be calculated yearly upto 31st March and the net balance of each amount entered in columns 5 and 9; but the figures in these columns should be compared once a year with the Savings Bank Pass-Book. Great care should, therefore, be taken to make the monthly calculation according to the rules in force in the Post Office or in Co-operative Bank approved by the Registrar of Co-operative Societies or in the Class 'A' Scheduled Bank as the case may be. The Provident Fund Ledger should have separate pages for each month's transactions.

14. No voluntary deposits from employees will be credited to the Provident Fund.

15. Employees are not entitled to subscribe to the Provident Fund while absent on leave without pay.

16. When the pecuniary interest of an employee in the Provident Fund is to be withdrawn, the Governing Body with the approval of Registrar, may

(iv) SERVICE AND CONDUCT OF NON-TEACHING STAFF IN NON-GOVT. COLLEGES

The following Ordinances to govern Service and Conduct of Non-teaching staff in Non-Govt. Colleges admitted to the privileges of Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, shall apply to all the members of the Non-teaching Staff Employees in non-government colleges including those already in service, unless otherwise specified

- In these Ordinances :
- (i) 'College' means an affiliated college under private Management
 - (ii) 'Employee' means a member of the Non-Teaching Staff in the Service of a non-government college.
 - (iii) 'Appointing Authority' means the Managing Body or the person authorised

General Ordinances of Service :

1. Non-Teaching Staff in non-government affiliated colleges shall be divided under the following categories :-

- (i) Ministerial Staff
- (ii) Lecture-Assistant, Laboratory Technician, Laboratory Assistant, Store-Keeper, Mistry/Electrician, Dispenser
- (iii) Daftries, Peons, Bearers, Chowkidars, Laboratory Bearers, Malis and other employees in the similar pay scales.

Appointments to the posts under category 1 (i & ii) shall be made after due advertisement.

2. No person shall be appointed in the college service, whose age is less than 18 years.

3. No person shall be substantively appointed in the college service unless he is medically fit. The character and antecedents of employees should be got verified by the Principal from the Deputy Commissioner of the district concerned.

4. Every person appointed to a substantive post, whether by promotion or by direct recruitment, shall be on probation in such post for a period of one year.

Offg. Principal
L.M. Girls College
Navanshahr

5. Where a person appointed to a post on probation is, during his period of probation, found unsuitable for holding that post or his work is not found satisfactory during the period of probation, the appointing authority may :-
- (i) in the case of a person appointed by promotion, revert him to the post held by him immediately before such appointment, or
 - (ii) in the case of a person appointed by direct recruitment, terminate his services or extend his period of probation by not more than one year. When the services of an employee are terminated during the period of probation no reason need be assigned.
6. Every person appointed to a substantive post by promotion or by direct recruitment shall, on satisfactory completion of his period of probation, be eligible for confirmation in the post.
7. An employee will ordinarily be appointed on one year's probation after which he will normally be confirmed if his work and conduct are found satisfactory by the Principal.
- The probationary period will, in no case, be extended beyond two years from the date of appointment of an employee. The confirmation will be done by the Principal if he is the appointing authority; and on the recommendation of the Principal when the confirmation is to be done by the Managing Body. It would be obligatory on the part of the Managing Body to notify to the employee concerned in writing before the expiry of two years' probationary period whether he has been confirmed. In the absence of such a notice, the person concerned would be deemed to have been confirmed.
8. Every employee shall at all times maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty.
9. Every employee shall abide by and comply with the rules of the college and all orders and directions of his superior authorities issued from time to time.
10. Every employee shall extend utmost courtesy and attention to all persons with whom he has to deal in the course of his duties.
11. Every employee shall endeavour to promote the interests of the college and shall not act in any manner harmful to the college.
12. No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of

M. S. Minakshi Sr

- the Principal, own wholly or in part or conduct or participate in editing or managing of any newspaper or other periodical publication.
13. No employee shall, in any Radio Broadcast or in any document published anonymously or in his own name or in the name of any other person or in any communication to the press or in any other public utterance, make any statement of fact or opinion :-
- (i) which has effect of any adverse criticism of any decision of his superiors or any current or recent policy or action of the college authorities;
 - (ii) which is capable of embarrassing the relation between the services in the college (Provided that nothing in this Ordinance shall apply to the statement or views expressed by an employee in his official capacity or in the due performance of the duties assigned to him); and
 - (iii) which involves personal attacks and insinuation against his superiors.
14. No employee shall, except in accordance with the general or special order of the Principal or in the performance in good faith of the duties assigned to him, convey directly or indirectly an official document or information to any person to whom he is not authorised to convey such documents or information.
15. An employee shall devote his whole time to the service of the college and shall not without express permission of the Principal, engage directly or indirectly in any trade or business, whatsoever, or any other work which in the opinion of the Principal may interfere with the proper discharge of his duties.
- 15.1 If a member of the ministerial or menial staff who is assigned an examination duty, either by the local controller of examination (co-ordinator) or by the University Office, fails to perform the same, he shall be treated as absent from his institution for the period in question, besides being liable to such other disciplinary action as the Managing/Governing body of his institution may decide.
16. No employee shall bring or attempt to bring any political or other outside influence to bear upon any superior authority to further his interests in respect of matters pertaining to his service under the college.

17. Service records of each employee of the college shall be maintained by the Principal's office on the printed service books maintained by the Principal's office. Confidential reports of each employee shall be written every year in the month of April by the Principal or the person authorised by the Principal in this behalf.

APPOINTMENT ETC.

18. When considering the appointment and promotion to a higher scale of pay, due consideration will be given to the efficiency, integrity, faithfulness and willingness to work in the discharge of his duties in the post.

19. The holder of a post the pay of which is changed, shall be treated as if he were transferred to a post on the new pay, provided that he may, at his option retain, his old pay until the date on which he has earned his next increment or any subsequent increment on that time scale. The option once exercised shall be final.

20. An increment shall ordinarily be drawn, as a matter of course, unless it is withheld. An increment may be withheld from an employee by the college authorities if his conduct has not been good or his work has not been satisfactory.

When it is proposed to withhold the annual increment of an employee, no order shall be passed imposing this penalty unless the employee concerned has been given an adequate opportunity to make any representation that he may desire to make and such representation has been taken into consideration.

The increment can be stopped only by the appointing authority.

21. Where an efficiency bar is prescribed in a time-scale the increment next above the bar shall be given to an employee on ground of efficiency alone by the appointing authority on the recommendation of the Principal.

i) On each occasion on which an employee is allowed to cross an efficiency bar which had previously been enforced against him, he should come on to the time-scale at such stage as the authority competent to declare the bar removed may fix for him, subject to the pay admissible according to his length of service.

ii) the case of an employee held up at the efficiency bar should be reviewed annually by the withholding authority.

iii) when it is proposed to stop an employee at the efficiency bar, no order shall be passed imposing this penalty, unless the employee concerned has been given an adequate opportunity to make any representation that he may desire to make and such representation has been taken into consideration.

An employee can be stopped at the efficiency bar only by the appointing authority.

22. The authority which orders the transfer of an employee as a penalty from a higher grade to a lower grade of post may allow him to draw pay, not exceeding the maximum of the lower grade or post which it may think proper.

23. If an employee is, on account of misconduct or inefficiency reduced to a lower grade or post or to a lower stage in his time scale, the authority ordering such reduction determines the period for which it shall be effective.

24. i) The services of a temporary employee may be terminated by the appointment authority without assigning any reason and giving any notice.

ii) the services of an employee on probation are liable to be terminated at any time by notice of one month in writing either by the employee to the appointing authority or by the appointing authority to the employee provided that the services of any such employee may be terminated by payment to or by the college, as the case may be, of an amount equal to his salary for one month, or for the period by which such a notice falls short of one month.

iii) The services of a permanent employee may be terminated by a notice of three months or payment of salary for such period as the notice falls short of three months, or without notice on payment of three months' salary, if the post in which he was concerned is abolished.

25. An employee who is given notice of termination of services under Ordinance 24 above may be granted, during the period of notice, such earned leave as may be admissible to him and where the leave so admissible and granted is more than ninety days, his services shall be terminated on the expiry of such leave.

SUSPENSION

26. Subject to the provisions of the following Ordinances, an employee of the college may be suspended by the appointing authority from his post, pending enquiry and disposal of any charge brought against him. Provided that the period of suspension shall not ordinarily exceed six months, before the expiry of which a decision shall be taken. Provided further that in case the meeting of the appointing authority is not to be held shortly and the circumstances warrant immediate action of suspension, the authorities of the college may take any action in anticipation of sanction of the appointing authority and may suspend an employee and report the matter to the appointing authority for its approval.

27. In all cases of suspension a charge-sheet shall be given to the employee ordinarily within fifteen days of his suspension and he shall be allowed 15 days to explain his conduct.

28. During the period of his suspension, the employee concerned shall receive subsistence allowance at the rate of one half of his pay plus allowance admissible under the rules on that pay i.e. half pay.

29. If an employee under suspension is completely exonerated of the charges brought against him, he shall

- a) be re-instated to his original post and entitled to all benefits that he may have earned, had he not been suspended; and
- b) draw all emoluments minus the emoluments already drawn for the entire period of his suspension.

30. The following penalties may, for a good and sufficient reason, be imposed upon an employee—

- (1) Minor penalties :
 - i) Censure
 - ii) Withholding of increments or promotion, including stoppage at an efficiency bar, if any.
 - iii) Recovery from pay of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the college by negligence or breach of orders.

(2) Major Penalties

- i) Reduction to a lower post or time scale or to a lower stage in the time scale.
- ii) Removal from service of the college which does not disqualify him from future employment.
- iii) Dismissal from service of the college.

If ultimately a non-teaching staff member is removed from service on account of serious misconduct or moral turpitude, notice for removal shall not be required nor will any salary be paid in lieu thereof.

Serious Misconduct :

Serious misconduct for this purpose shall include :

- a) Participation in strike, abetting, instigating or acting in furtherance of the same.
 - b) Disobedience of any order, non-compliance of rules or habitual neglect of work.
 - c) Theft, fraud or dishonesty in connection with college property.
 - d) Wilful damage to the college property.
 - e) Wilful absence from duty without proper permission.
 - f) Wilful absence from duty after the expiry of leave.
 - g) Refusal to accept a charge-sheet, order or any other communication.
 - h) Conviction on a criminal charge.
 - i) Misbehaviour, use of abusive language or insolence, and
 - j) An act involving 'Moral Turpitude'.
- "The expression 'Moral Turpitude' generally implies an act of baseness, vileness or depravity in the private and social duties which a man owes to his fellow men or to society in general, contrary to the accepted and customary rule of right and duty between man and man. It has generally been taken to mean conduct contrary to justice, honesty, modesty or good morals."
- (3) No employee shall be dismissed or removed or reduced in rank except after an enquiry in which he has been informed of the charges against him and given a reasonable opportunity of being heard in respect of those charges.

- (4) (i) The penalty of dismissal or removal from service shall not be imposed unless the same is approved by the Director of Public Instructions (Colleges), Punjab hereafter referred to as Director.
- (ii) Where after the enquiry referred to in Para 30(3) it is proposed to impose the penalty of dismissal or removal from service the proposal shall be referred to the Director alongwith the relevant record and intimation about the proposal having been so referred, shall be sent to the employee concerned also simultaneously.
- (iii) The employee may, within a period of thirty days of receipt of the intimation referred to in Ordinance 30.4(ii) make a representation against the proposed penalty to the Director who may, after examining the record and giving to the parties an opportunity of being heard, by an order in writing, give his approval to the imposition of the proposed penalty of dismissal or removal from service, as the case may be, or refuse to give approval if the proposal is found to be mala fide or any way of victimisation or not warranted by the facts and circumstances of the case.
- (iv) Any party aggrieved by an order of the Director under Ordinance 30.4 (iii) may file an appeal to the District Judge who may, after giving to the parties an opportunity of being heard, pass such order as he may deem fit.
- (5) (i) Where after the enquiry referred to in Ordinance 30(3) it is proposed to impose the penalty of reduction in rank the employee shall be given a reasonable opportunity of making representation on the penalty, proposed to be imposed and no order of reduction in rank shall be passed unless such an opportunity has been given.

(ii) An employee against whom an order of reduction in rank is passed may within the prescribed period and in the prescribed manner, file an appeal to the District Judge and the District Judge may, after examining the record and giving to the parties an opportunity of being heard, set aside the order of reduction in rank, if the same is found to be mala fide or by way of victimisation or not warranted by the facts and circumstances of the case.

- (6) The provision contained in Ordinance 30(3, 4 & 5) shall not apply :
- i) to the termination of services of any employee who is appointed for a temporary period only;
- ii) to the termination of services of any employee appointed on probation, during or at the end of the period of probation, on account of his work or conduct being unsatisfactory; and
- iii) to an employee who is dismissed or removed or reduced in rank on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge.
31. If an employee on probation wishes to resign from service, he shall give one month's notice in writing to the college. If the employee fails to give such a notice, the college shall recover one month's salary or salary for the period by which the notice falls short of one month from him in lieu of such notice unless otherwise directed by the competent authority.
32. If the college authorities decide to relieve an employee on probation, one month's notice shall be given to him or in lieu of notice, he shall be paid one month's salary.
33. A permanent employee shall be required to give three months' notice in case he desires to be relieved or he shall pay to the college three months' salary in lieu of such notice unless otherwise directed by the college authorities.
34. An employee, before leaving the college service, shall hand over the charge of his post to a duly authorised employee and shall return to the college all books, apparatus, furniture etc. issued to him and shall pay up in full all the charges due from him for occupation.

suspended is re-instated, the authority competent to order the re-instatement shall consider and make specific order:

- (a) regarding the pay and allowances to be paid to the employee for the period of his absence from duty, and
- (b) whether or not the said period shall be treated as a period spent on duty.

(3) When the employee has been fully exonerated or, in case of suspension if it is established that it was wholly unjustified, the employee shall be given full pay and allowances to what he would have been entitled, had he not been dismissed, removed or suspended, as the case may be. In other cases, the employee shall be given such proportion of pay and allowances as the competent authority may prescribe. In case an employee is re-instated but he is not exonerated, he may, at his option, be granted leave of the kind due to him for the period of his suspension.

(4) If an employee overstays his leave he shall forfeit all his salary during the period of remaining so absent, and if he overstays his leave for more than one week or remains absent without leave for more than a week his office shall be liable to be declared vacant.

(5) (A) Casual Leave :

Casual leave may be granted to an employee as under :-

- (i) With service up to 10 years 10 days in a year.
- (ii) With service between 10 and 20 years 15 days in a year.
- (iii) Exceeding 20 years 20 days in a year.
- (iv) All women employees shall be entitled to 20 days casual leave every year irrespective of number of years of service put in by them.

Note: (1) Casual leave shall always be applied for and got sanctioned before it is availed of. In case of urgency, however, this can be waived off at the discretion of granting authority.

(2) The authority competent to grant casual leave shall be the Principal in case of employees working under his administrative control.

(3) Sundays or other college holidays falling within the period of casual leave shall not be counted as casual leave.

(B) Summer Vacation/Privilege Leave :

An employee shall be entitled to half the summer vacation as given to teachers. If an employee is not permitted by the Principal to be absent during the summer vacation, he may be granted privilege leave to compensate for the days for which he was prevented from proceeding on leave by a written office order.

The Laboratory Staff working in the Non-Government Colleges affiliated to this University will be entitled to 8 days privilege leave in a year as admissible in the Government Colleges.

(C) Medical Leave :

The college shall follow the sick leave rules as prescribed by the Punjab Government. Sick leave will be granted on production of medical certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner or such other authority as the college management may prescribe.

(D) Maternity Leave :

Women employees shall be entitled to Maternity leave according to the rules laid down by the Punjab Government.

Note : 1. Maternity leave can be Pre-fixed or Suffixed with Medical leave and Summer Vacation.

2. All the non-teaching employees of the college shall be allowed holidays as notified by the Principal but they shall not be entitled to Autumn and Winter Recess.

(6) The Principal may, at his discretion, sanction, leave on full pay or on half pay (as the case may be) to an employee of the college whom leave is not due at the time of sanction of the leave, if he is satisfied that the employee would continue in the service of the college and such leave shall then be adjusted, as and when the employee has earned that leave in due course of time.

(7) In case of necessity, leave without pay may be granted, subject to the condition that no employee can be granted such leave for more than two years during the whole period of his service. Provided that in the case of leave, without pay the annual increment of the employee shall be deferred by the period spent on leave without pay.
